Compared to Last Sale: Small test during today's sale in large part due to chaotic market indicators caused by the news surrounding the novel coronavirus COVID-19. Stock markets have decreased 20 percent from recent highs. Nearly all commodities have been negatively influenced by this outside market factor, but cattle markets have been especially chaotic. Thank you to our buyers for their support during this down market situation that is compounded in our area by the lack of precipitation. Looking forward to a better forecast this weekend. Thank you to Corbitt Wall for his presentation prior to today's sale, and to Boehringer Ingelheim for sponsoring this event.
